Activity Report, September 2009 - March 2010

Here are some highlights of the first seven months of Mrs. Weber' second MEP Term:

Head of EU Election Observation Mission in Bolivia

One of Renate Weber's most notable and prestigious activities of the beginning of the new MEP term was the second time appointment as Head of the EU Election Observation Mission in Bolivia¹.

Mrs. Weber has led the EU EOM that observed - following an invitation of the Bolivian Government - the presidential and legislative elections which took place on December 6, 2009, as well as referendums on an autonomy status, which took place in five departments (details here)

¹ Note to journalists and survey institutes: Due to the EU EOM in Bolivia, Renate Weber was objectively not able to attend the following EP Plenary Sitzings: November 11-12, 2009; November 23-26, 2009

The Romanian MEP had also led the EOM that the European Commission had deployed for the referendum which took place in Bolivia in January 2009 (details here).
